Public Comment

- We now welcome members of the public to make public comments to the Committee. Each speaker has up to two minutes. When making a comment, we encourage you not to refer to other members of the public by name to protect their privacy. Please be mindful that by law the Committee must maintain the confidentiality of case information, so we will not discuss the particulars of cases in a public forum. We look forward to hearing your views. Are there any speakers?

- Please remember that we also accept commentary from the public in our ACC email, which is ACCommittee@co.pg.md.us .
