

Leon Bailey, the Lebe group CEO is a Real estate and marketing consultant. He has worked as a Strategic consultant for major brands such as 7-eleven and Sunoco, assisting with the development of the brands operations, franchising and marketing plans.

Appointed in 2019 as the Vice Chair of the Redevelopment Authority Board in Prince George's County. Mr. Bailey, a resident of Bowie, is an accomplished business development leader with years of experience driving revenue through building and maintaining client relationships.

Mr. Bailey is a creative and dynamic marketer with proven expertise in new markets to ensure sustainable growth. As owner of the Lebe Group, he researches potential investment opportunities, analyzes opportunities and risks inherent in specific sectors and markets and creates valuation analysis, including complex financial models.

Mr. Bailey is a graduate from Hampton University with a Mass Media Communications degree.