Isabel Williams- Committee welcome and thanks.

Attendee Introductions

Barry Stanton- Welcomed and thanked everyone for attending the meeting on behalf of CE Angela Alsobrooks. Reminded everyone that that the role in the Administrative Charging Committee is very important. Stated that he was glad that things were getting started and thanked everyone again.

Rhonda Weaver- Welcomed the Committee members and the ACC attorney. Explained the rules of selecting the Committee members and Committee hearing rules. She also discussed the expectations of the Committee.

Todd Turner & Roslyn Walker- Explained the role of the Office of Ethics and Accountability and advised that should the Administrative Charging Committee need anything, they are just a phone call or email away.

Roger Thomas- Thanked everyone for having him as the attorney. He explained his legal background. He stated that he has an open door policy.

Denise Hall- Welcomed all the Committee members, she introduced the PAB attorney and discussed the role of the Police Accountability Board.

Marva Jo Camp- Quickly said hello and stated that she looks forward to working with everyone.

At 8:15pm the Committee discussed and voted who would be the Chair of the Committee, and all were in favor of Kelvin Davall. The Chair vote was followed by a vote of who would be Vice Chair, and all were in favor of Cardell Montague. After the votes, the members discussed when the next meeting would occur and how it would take place. They all voted to hold the next meeting in-person in two weeks on February 23, 2023 at 6:30pm and virtual zoom link will be provided for those that need it.

At 8:30 pm the paralegal motioned the Committee with a memo to address concerns related to incomplete video evidence in an open case. The Paralegal asked the Committee to take a paper vote on whether or not to issue a subpoena to obtain the missing video footage. Votes were collected by tally vote and also addressed by the Chair and Attorney Roger Thomas Esq., and motion passed.

At 8:43pm a motion to adjourn was made by Mr. Davall, and seconded by Mr. Montague, all members were in favor.
