COUNCIL MEMBER TURNER SUPPORTS POINTER RIDGE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL WALK-A-THON
Turner Provides Grant for Walk-A-Thon

Prince George's County Council Member Ingrid M. Turner (D) – District 4, will continue her efforts in promoting healthy lifestyles and participate in the Walk-A-Thon at Pointer Ridge Elementary School, 1110 Parkington Lane, Bowie, MD on Saturday, October 2, 2010, at 8:00 a.m. She will also present a $500 grant to the Pointer Ridge Elementary PTA to support family events and promote healthy lifestyles for the community and students.

Council Member Turner looks forward to walking with the students and their families. "The health of our young people is a priority and I am very pleased to walk with the Pointer Ridge community and provide funding for the school's Physical Education Department. It is so important for the children to see their parents and teachers setting the example by exercising, eating right and just being committed overall to a healthier lifestyle."

The Pointer Ridge Elementary School PTA Walk-A-Thon will be held on Saturday, October 2, 2010 from 8:00 am – 9:30 am at Pointer Ridge Elementary School. The Pointer Ridge PTA is committed to sponsoring family events and promoting a healthy lifestyle for their students and families.
