

Environment

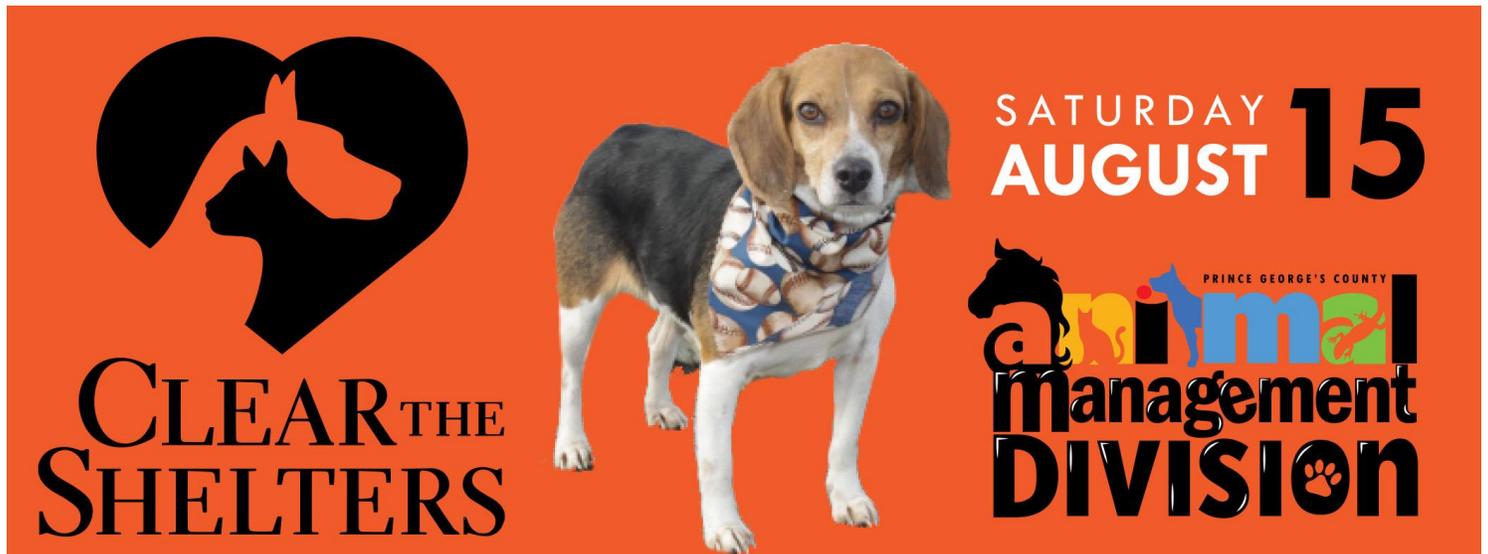

Prince George's County, Maryland

Prince George's County Animal Services Facility to Participate in NBC4 "Clear the Shelters" Day

For Immediate Release: 8/13/2015 12:00 AM

Contact: Lauren A. Kinard, Public Information Specialist, Department of the Environment, (301) 883-5957

Media Advisory

For Immediate Release:
August 13, 2015

Media Inquiries:
Lauren A. Kinard
Public Information Specialist
(301) 883-5957

Prince George's County Animal Services Facility to Participate in NBC4 "Clear the Shelters" Pet Adoption Event

Largo, MD – On Saturday, August 15, 2015, the Department of the Environment's Animal Management Division (AMD) will join NBC4 Washington and hundreds of animal shelters in D.C., Maryland and Virginia for "Clear the Shelters" Day – a pet adoption event. During this special one-day event, pet adoptions are free at the Animal Services Facility.

Expert staff and volunteers will be available to assist potential adopters select the best dog or cat for their family, as well as provide tips for welcoming a new pet into their home. AMD will share live updates with NBC4 on successful adoptions throughout the day and post updates on Facebook and Twitter using #ClearTheShelters.

WHO:

Department of the Environment's Animal Management Division

WHAT:

"Clear the Shelters" Day – a Pet Adoption Event

WHEN:

Saturday, August 15, 2015

10:00 AM to 4:00 PM

WHERE:

Animal Services Facility

3750 Brown Station Road

Upper Marlboro, MD 20772

For more information on the pets available for adoption during the "Clear the Shelters" Day, visit www.princegeorgespets4us.com or call (301) 780-7200.

Pet adoptions subject to licensing fee*

###