

Environment

Prince George's County, Maryland

County Animal Shelter Closes to Public On November 21 Due to HVAC Repair

For Immediate Release: 11/21/2014 12:00 AM

Contact: Linda Lowe, Department of the Environment, Public Information Officer/301-883-5952

Facility will reopen to public on Saturday, November 22, 2014

LARGO, MD – Due to an emergency HVAC mechanical repair, the Prince George's County Animal Services Facility will temporarily close to the public on Friday, November 21, 2014. The Facility will reopen on Saturday, November 22 at its normal hours of operation of 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

All programs and services scheduled for Saturday, November 22 will take place including the Photos with Santa pet event starting at 11 a.m.

For more information about the Animal Services Facility, contact CountyClick 311.

###