Prince George's County Sheriff's Office wins Governor's Award

Each year the Maryland Community Crime Prevention Institute, along with the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services, the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commissions and the Maryland Crime Prevention Association present the Annual Governor's Crime Prevention Awards.

This year there are 56 award recipients, each of whom have made outstanding contributions to the furtherance of crime prevention programming. The Prince George's County Sheriff's Office was awarded the Governor's Crime Prevention Award for Outstanding Proactive Crime Prevention. The Sheriff's Office School & Library Resource Division was the recipient of this award.

The Prince George's County Sheriff's Office currently has a school resource deputy assigned in twenty-one (21) high schools and three (3) libraries in the county. This is the second year that the Sheriff's Office have been assigned to the schools and libraries.
