Prince George's County Sheriff Michael A. Jackson Selected as Law Enforcement Person of the Year

The Maryland Network Against Domestic Violence has selected Prince George's County Sheriff Michael A. Jackson as their 2007 Law Enforcement person of the year.

Sheriff Jackson has developed and implemented many outstanding, innovative and progressive initiatives focused on serving and protecting victims of domestic violence in Prince George's County. He implemented the first 24 hour 7 day a week Domestic Violence Intervention Unit in the state. He also initiated the first civilian Domestic Violence Intervention/Community Services Unit closely followed by the implementation of the Domestic Violence Victim Advocate Unit. His commitment to serving and protecting domestic violence victims is unparalleled and that commitment is demonstrated throughout the agency.

Sheriff Jackson will be honored at a reception on Thursday October 25th, 2007 at the Double Tree Hotel in Annapolis starting at 5:30pm.
