Mr. Camacho moved to approve the transfer, seconded by Ms. Kelsey and made unanimous by Mr. Bowman, Mr. Miles and Mr. Graham.

In the matter of Harjinder Singh, Member/Authorized Person, Sunanda S. Rana, Member-Manager, for a Class A, Beer, Wine and Liquor for the use of Adelphi Spirits, LLC, t/a El Toro Liquors, 9107 Riggs Road, Adelphi, 20783, transfer of location from Chawla LLC, t/a #1 Liquors, 8400 Baltimore Avenue, College Park, 20740, Rakesh K. Chawla, Managing Member, Kewal K. Bhagat, Authorized Person.

Applicant is represented by Robert Kim, Esquire.

Robert Kim requested to amend the application to reduce the space for off sale to 7,400 square feet.

Mr. Camacho moved to amend the application, seconded by Ms. Kelsey and made unanimous by Mr. Miles, Mr. Bowman and Mr. Graham.

Harjinder Singh stated that he is a resident of Germantown; that he is a citizen of the US; that he has not been convicted of any felonies; that he has held a license in Rockville previously for three years; that he has not had any violations while on that license; that he is not on any other licenses; that he does not have an interest in any other businesses that holds a liquor license; that his title is member/authorized person; that he will work at the store; that he is familiar with the Rules and Regulations; that he will ensure the employees follow them; that he has been through Alcohol Awareness training; that you must be 21 to consume alcohol and 18 to sell; named the five acceptable forms of identification; that other than the change to the square footage of off sale the application is correct; that he understands he is responsible for the business and must appear before the Board for any violations.

Sunanda S. Rana stated that she is a resident of Alexandria, Virginia; that she is a citizen of the United States; that she has never had a violation on a liquor license; that she has never been on a license before; that she has not had a liquor license revoked; that she does not have an interest in any other business that holds a license; that she will work about 10 hours a week; that she is the manager and member; that she has Alcohol Awareness Certification; that she is familiar with the Rules and Regulations; that she will ensure her employees follows them as well; that she will have approximately ten employees; that the building was formerly the Golden Bull; that the renovations will be significant and will cost approximately $500,000.00; that it will take approximately six to nine months to complete; that you must be 21 to consume alcohol and 18 to sell; that she is responsible for appearing before the Board for any violations of the license or issues; named the five acceptable forms of identification; that no work has been done currently; that the issuance of the license will accommodate the public; that she doesn't believe it will disturb the peace and quiet; that she went door to door to collect signatures and asked residents their opinions; that three bus lines go through this area making it very accessible; that she will have employees come in and train on the register and stocking; that she will have security during and after hours; that the security will be employed by them; that they will be there certain hours and are currently working it out; that she will be open 9:00 a.m. to midnight every day except Sunday; that she does not have any prior experience in alcohol sales but Mr. Singh does.

Blanca Molina stated that she is resident of Silver Springs; that she is here to support El Toro; that she used to go to Langley Park for alcohol, but now it's too dangerous to go in the evening; that she buys beer and wine; that she has lived in the area for eight years.

Blanca Peña stated that she is a resident of Silver Springs; that she is here in support of El Toro; that she could go there for alcohol for parties on Saturdays.

Juan Fuentes stated that he is a resident of Hyattsville; that he is here in support of El Toro; that he is a neighbor of the location for twenty years; that it would be good for it to be open again and he can go and buy from them.

Larry Sled stated that he is a resident of Adelphi; that he is here in opposition; that he is a member of White Oak Manor Citizen's Association; that the neighborhood is about ½ mile away from the location; that he is here in his personal capacity not as the association; that the notification is inadequate; that the notice was posted on the restaurant side door, not on the liquor store side; that it leads you to believe that it is a restaurant opening not a liquor store; that a restaurant and a liquor store are different classes; that Class B, restaurant, would be on sale only; that the liquor store side is for off sale; that the signs posting was misleading; that it makes you believe the license is for the restaurant not the liquor store; that off sales are consumed by transients in the wooded lot and parking lot and along the road; that there have been several deaths of homeless in connection with the liquor store; that public intoxication, public urination have seen a decrease; that panhandling has also decreased with the prior business closing; that there are a lot of elderly in the area; that they visit local businesses more since these issues have been resolved; that there are elementary schools close by; a middle school ½ a mile away; that children and the community in the area should not be subjected to this; that he is aware that the new owners are not associated with the previous owners; that it will return to previous condition; that having security won't assist in surrounding areas; that the current landlord won't allow Prince George's County Police Department to come in that area; that he is against liquor stores in that area all together; that it is a family friendly area; that the last liquor store closed three years ago; that vagrants are still there, but it has decreased; that he didn't believe the community was interested in not; that he's not sure where the signatures came from; that by them altering the application are we sure of what they're doing; that regardless of the posting he is still in opposition; that he has been a resident for thirty-seven years; that he has seen growth and change; that he has tried to deal with the landlord; that the security of the area is his major concern; that he doesn't understand why the landlord won't allow Prince George's County Police Department to come in; that he doesn't understand what private security will do if the Police Department can't come in.

Sunanda Rana stated that security is very important to her; that they're family friendly people too; that they want it safe for their family; that she is not familiar with the issues with the security and landlord.

Gerald Daniels stated that he is a resident of Adelphi; that he lives across the street; that he has been a resident for twenty eight years; that he has been going to the shopping center; that he has seen the changes; that he recommends having El Toro open; that you have to miles away just for lottery tickets currently.

Boards Exhibit #1 – Map – Presented by Cristian Mendoza.

Mr. Camacho moved to approve the transfer, seconded by Ms. Kelsey and made unanimous by Mr. Bowman, Mr. Miles and Mr. Graham.

In the matter of Brian Berman, Member/Authorized Person, Shravan Chincode, Member/Authorized Person, for a Class B+, Beer and Wine for the use of Srisai, LLC, t/a Crescent Beer & Wine, 15501 Annapolis Road, Bowie, 20715, transfer of location from Laurel Spirit, Inc., t/a Laurel-Bowie Liquor and Deli, 9830 Mallard Road, Laurel, 20708, Chang Baek Choi, President, Constance Arlene Duncan, Vice President. Applicant is represented by Charles Iweanoge, Esquire.

Zacharie Tankoua stated that he is a resident of Lanham; that he has been a resident for seventeen years; that he has been before the Board previously; that he has not been convicted of a felony; that he has not had a violation on a liquor license; that he has not had liquor license previously; that he doesn't own any other business that has a liquor license; that he is the sole Member and Manager of VIP Stage; that he understands his responsibilities; that they haven't been open yet; that he doesn't even sell food currently; that the business doesn't occupy unit A or C, only B; that he will be there 30 hours a week; that he will have 15-20 employees; that some will be part time and some will be full time; that he will have chefs, bartenders, waiter/waitress; that he has reviewed the Rules and Regulations; that you must be 18 to serve alcohol and 21 to consume; named the five acceptable forms of identification; that they intend to apply for a Special Entertainment Permit in the future; that the entertainment will be patron dancing; that they will come in to eat and have a DJ; that the only people dancing will be patrons; that patrons must be dressed appropriately; that patrons can't come in nude; that they can't come in underwear and bra only; that they won't serve people that come in dressed that way; that there will be a full kitchen; that there will be hot and cold food; that the hours will be 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 a.m. Monday through Thursday, 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 a.m. Friday and Saturday and 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 a.m. on Sunday; that the menu focus will be quality African food, North, East, South and West; that the menu insert is for specialty food; that there will be formal seating, tables and sofas; that there will be a VIP area; that it is his dream to provide a venue that has not been here before; that the VIP area is for a private party; that it will provide one on one confidence; that there will be places for people to eat and have private conversations; that no one in the private area will be dancing or nude; that dancing will only be on the dance floor; that the VIP seating is for 5-10 people; a couple for 10 people, more for 5 people; that they aren't completely open to the restaurant; that they are half open and the view is blocked some; that there are curtains, yellow in color; that for VIP you have to book reservations in advance; that he understands there can be no VIP seating without a Special Entertainment Permit; that he understands he's responsible for following the Rules and Regulations; that he is responsible for his employees following the Rules and Regulations; that he is the only restaurant in the area to provide special African food; that not only is it from the North and South, but it is a magnificent venue that people can come and have meetings with good food and good drinks; that he intends to invite the Fire Department when they're open; that once they're open he'll reach out to the community; that during the last election he had people request to hold campaign meetings there; that he is off of Kenilworth, about one block away, a couple blocks away; that there are no grocery stores; that a Spanish restaurant opened recently a few buildings down; that there isn't anything else there; that you must get off of Kenilworth to get there or see it; that he has small signs; that a map can take you there; that they don't have as set advertisement plan; that he has experience in the restaurant industry; that when was in school he worked at Dancing Crabs.

Michael Kupi stated that he is a resident of Bowie; that he is the Chef at VIP Stage; that he helped in the preparation of the menu; that the concept is for food from different countries like Italian and Ethiopian too; that they will rotate every day to two or three days to focus on certain countries; that the menu will change; that he was hired in December or January; that he has a Bachelors in Culinary Arts and Business; that he studied overseas; that he has other restaurants he's set up and made the menu; that he wants to research the food and techniques; that some food he's not as familiar with; that the menu and descriptions will change.

Zacharie Tankoua stated that he has had the lease for nine months currently; that he is funding the lease personally currently; that he is not holding events currently.

Laila Riazi stated that she is a resident of Cheverly; that she represents the Town of Cheverly; that she submitted a letter prior to the hearing; that she wants the Board to take in the history, isolation and the character of the location; that it is out of the way; that even if VIP Lounge and Super Fuego are not externally connected they are close; that it is a dark area with little lighting; that parking is out of the way; that the business next door has a similar operation; that she finds it odd that Mr. Tankoua is not aware of the business next door or their issues; that the VIP areas are odd; that a banquet facility was how it was portrayed and those are usually family friendly, but the odds don't go with that idea; that they want a dance hall permit; that to her understanding VIP doesn't mean family, it is separate; that she wants to know what role employees play, what kind of private conversations will take place, will the tables be moved to accommodate dance, what happens with the license if no food is served since there are no tables or will alcohol not be allowed at these times; that the community was not asked about their opinion; that after they've finished at these locations people leave those areas and go into the communities and the Police Department has to step in; that the hours are not compatible with having children or families; that they have questions on parking, the meal requirement, lighting in parking lot and in front of the business, can patrons bring in their electronic devices because they've been controlled next door by not allowing people to bring them in, what constitutes VIP, how are employees involved; that she wonders what the marketing platform is, if it will be more focused on "Bring your family" or "Closed off for private entertainment"; that the area creates the feeling of being hidden. That the officials in the Town of Cheverly have not been approached by the applicant in any way; that the last time she went to that area was about four weeks ago at 10 pm; that there may be new restaurants in the area she's not aware of, but they close at normal family friendly times; that a family wouldn't go to this industrial area off the main roads; that it is a dark area at night; that there is a towing company, a storage facility and a bakery in that area; that they aren't against growth or new restaurants, but the information presented contradicts that that's what this is.

David Warrington stated that he is a resident of Cheverly; that he is representing the Mayor's Council; that they are in a unanimous position to oppose this business; that they have been complaining since 2011 when Fuego opened; that patrons from these places migrate to other areas and then their Police Department have to respond even though it's not in their corporate limits; that Ms. Riazi drafted a letter and the mayor and council supported it unanimously to be presented; that a flyer initially informed him of what was going on and he sent in an undercover officer as a patron; last saw Fuego open May 14th; that he has never had contact with the applicant; that they never attempted and he didn't either; that the business is not located in Cheverly, it is outside of their jurisdiction, but it is in the variance on the edge of town and they do have some voice.

Zacharie Tankoua stated that the capacity is 150 people and the parking supports that.

Malcolm Augustine stated that he is a resident of Cheverly; that he is in opposition; that it is an industrial zone; that there has been no attempt to reach out; that the only thing there is a night club or strip club; that there have been no advertisements which puts a damper on a restaurant in this area; that Fuego has done lots of advertisements; that the owner hasn't done market research; that this will give an establishment that had their license revoked a liquor license right next door; that he is here as a single resident; that he lives approximately one mile away directly; that there has been lots of conversation in the community about this in opposition; that he us unhappy with the business that is next door.

Boards Exhibit #1 – Map – Presented by Cristian Mendoza.
