Any parent or guardian who knowingly allows a juvenile or minor in their care or custody to be present at or remain at a public place or place open to the public at the National Harbor under circumstances not constituting an exception to this order is subject to a civil fine up to $250, as well as all costs incurred for the provision of County personnel to remain in the company of a juvenile who has been detained as a curfew violator if the parent or guardian does not pick up the juvenile within one hour after receiving notice from the County that the County is detaining the juvenile for a curfew violation. The amount to be paid by the parent or guardian shall be based on the hourly wage of the County employee who is assigned to remain with the juvenile plus the cost of benefits for that employee.
