Rushern L. Baker, III
County Executive

2015 TRANSFORMING NEIGHBORHOOD INITIATIVE (TNI) FUND FOR COMMUNITY INNOVATION AWARDS

Established in 2014 by the Office of the Prince George's County Executive and Prince George's County Public Schools, the TNI Fund provides general operating, program funding and capacity building support to community-based organizations providing quality free and/or affordable out-of-school programming for youth and families living in Prince George's County's TNI communities of Langley Park, East Riverdale/Bladensburg, Kentland/Palmer Park, Suitland/Coral Hills, Hillcrest Heights/Marlow Heights, and Glassmanor/Oxon Hill. In 2015, grants totaling $76,500 were awarded to nonprofits serving Prince George's County, Maryland.

ORGANIZATION	AMOUNT	PURPOSE	WEBSITE
100 Black Men of Prince George's County	$5,000	The funds are designated to continue the Well Rounded Young Men program for youth to focus on education, community engagement, economic development and health & wellness in Suitland and Bladensburg.	http://www.100princegeorges.org/
Community Builders of Maryland	$9,000	The funds are designated to support summer and after-school programs to improve math and reading performance of students in the Hillcrest Heights/Marlow Heights and Glassmanor/Oxon Hill communities.	http://www.communitybuildersmaryland.org/
Derek Anthony Moore Charity	$17,000	The funds are designated to support low-income families from the TNI communities to participate in the Kids to Camp summer program.	http://www.damci.org/
Family Restoration and Healing Center	$19,000	The funds are designated to provide education, case management and counseling supportive services to youth to support securing employment, job training or pursuing postsecondary education.	http://www.360wholeness.org/

Updated October 30, 2017

Rushern L. Baker, III
County Executive

2015 TRANSFORMING NEIGHBORHOOD INITIATIVE (TNI) FUND FOR COMMUNITY INNOVATION AWARDS

Established in 2014 by the Office of the Prince George's County Executive and Prince George's County Public Schools, the TNI Fund provides general operating, program funding and capacity building support to community-based organizations providing quality free and/or affordable out-of-school programming for youth and families living in Prince George's County's TNI communities of Langley Park, East Riverdale/Bladensburg, Kentland/Palmer Park, Suitland/Coral Hills, Hillcrest Heights/Marlow Heights, and Glassmanor/Oxon Hill. In 2015, grants totaling $76,500 were awarded to nonprofits serving Prince George's County, Maryland.

ORGANIZATION	AMOUNT	PURPOSE	WEBSITE
Girls Excelling in Math and Science of Prince George's County	$2,500	The funds are designated to support a weekly after-school science, engineering and mathematics enrichment program for middle schools girls in Langley Park and East Riverdale/Bladensburg.	https://gemspg.wordpress.com/
PTA Maryland Congress of Parent and Teachers dba Suitland High School PTSA	$5,000	The funds are designated to provide one-on-one tutoring services for Suitland High School students at risk of failing or not being able to graduate on time.	http://www.suitlandhsptsa.org/
Vine Corps	$19,000	The funds are designated to provide students from East Riverdale/Bladensburg and Kentland/Palmer Park with access to weekly study halls with educational remediation and college and career preparation.	https://www.vinecorps.org/
Total:	$76,500

Updated October 30, 2017