

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

MISSION AND SERVICES

The Industrial Development Authority of Prince George's County (IDA) is a public building authority through which the County can provide physical facilities on a timely and cost effective basis. The County enters into long-term leases with the IDA. Joint lease agreements between IDA and the State or other governmental entities are formed in order to meet its continuing space needs.

The Authority was established pursuant to the Maryland Economic Development Revenue Bond Act and operates on a non-profit basis. It issues tax exempt bonds to finance public building projects approved by the County Executive and the County Council. These borrowings are secured by leases with participating public entities. The Authority now serves as a concurrent financing structure with the Prince George's County Revenue Authority. Both authorities share the same Board of Directors.

Through a cooperative agreement with the State, the IDA completed development of the expanded Prince George's Justice Center Complex. This facility, which opened in 1992, provides space for the Circuit Court and other criminal justice programs in Upper Marlboro. The Authority also provided financing for the State's District Court facility in Hyattsville, which became operational in 1996. The IDA issued $22.1 million of subordinate lease revenue bonds in August 2003 to finance the construction and equipping of an expansion of the original Upper Marlboro Justice Center. The four-story expansion is approximately 90,000 square feet and is inter-connected to the Marbury Wing. The expansion space will be leased to the County for use as a courthouse and multi-service center. In December 2009, the IDA issued $23.9 million of taxable lease revenue bonds for the Upper Marlboro Courthouse Duvall Wing Restoration project. The bonds financed the costs of the reconstruction, rehabilitation and repair of the building. The Duvall Wing consists of a five-story building that comprises a total of 151,000 square feet.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

In FY 2016, the County provides $7.9 million for debt service payments and $37,700 for bond-related administrative expenses associated with the management of the IDA. This includes payments for the Prince George's County Justice Center and expansion and Upper Marlboro Courthouse Duvall Wing Restoration project. The State pays a portion of debt service on the Justice Center and Expansion at $2.3 million annually.

The County has entered into a lease with the State to recover costs associated with maintenance and operations of the space occupied by State offices. This reimbursement is shown as a recovery in the section entitled Expenditure Recoveries – Leases/Utilities, included in the Non-Departmental section of this document.
