

Where there's a will... There's a way!

Presentation recording: MetLife Will Services-20220420 1701-1

FAQs captured from Will Preparation “Live” Session offered Wednesday, 4-20-22

Q. Any info on Trusts will be appreciated

A. Trusts are not covered under these Will Services.

Q. Will a copy of the presentation be available?

A. A copy of the presentation can be located here.

Q. Is the Will for individuals or husband/wife can do it together?

A. Either! Individuals can create a Will or you can create one with your spouse.

Q. Can the husband have his own log-in details?

A. For WillsCenter.com – Your spouse can log in separately.

Q. Can grandchildren be included in wills?

A. Yes, Grandchildren can be included in a Will.

Q. Will you please confirm how we can check to see if we pay for Extra Life Insurance or not?

A. Verification of your enrollment in Extra Life Insurance can be made via the Employee Self Service (ESS) portal or the review of your payroll statement.

Q. Accessibility to sight or hearing impaired?

A. Yes.

Q. Is there a membership fee associated with this plan?

A. No fees. In order to utilize the Will Preparation Services through MetLife Legal Plans, enrollment in the Extra Life Insurance is required.

Q. You keep mentioning Prince George's County. I live in North Carolina, so do I still refer to Prince George's county?

A. If you currently or previously have worked for Prince George's County Government, Maryland you may access these Will Services.

Q. Mine said Prince George's County Government, not Prince George's County, Maryland. Is that okay?

A. Yes, it is.

Q. In order to take advantage of this you have to take out the "extra" life insurance?

A. In order to utilize Will Preparation through MetLife Legal Plans you need to enroll in Extra Life. If you are not enrolled in Extra Life Insurance, you may utilize WillsCenter.com.

Q. Can I enroll in Extra Life insurance now or only during our open enrollment period?

A. During Annual Open Enrollment Season which occurs October 17th through October 31st for the 2023 season for active employees.

Q. Is this whole or term life insurance?

A. The available coverage through Prince George's County Government is Term Life Insurance.

Q. If I'm retired and live outside of PG County, will I be able to exercise this?

A. If you are a Retiree who previously worked for PG County Government, yes you can use WillsCenter.com.

Q. So after we go online and complete the will it will get registered automatically?

A. No, once you complete building the Will online, you will print/save and will need to follow the state requirements for having it signed, witnessed or notarized.

Q. Can you still use the WillsCenter if you are currently married but in process of divorce? Or should I wait until after divorce to complete my will?

A. Please review with your divorce attorney on appropriate timing to draft a Will.

Q. Can you please share the other website address that you should use if you do have Extra Life Insurance?

A. legalplans.com/estateplanning.

Q. Are LTGF employees eligible?

A. LTGF employees are not eligible, as Basic Life Insurance and Extra Life Insurance are not a benefit outlined in the contracts for Limited Term Grant Funded positions.

Q. What if you already have a notarized will. Is there a way to upload it to the website?

A. The website will not store previously completed Wills, as it is designed to help you create an original or new Will.

Q. How is the will registered after we complete and download?

A. The final notarized Will must be filed with your county's Registrar of Wills.

Q. What is the main advantage of using the MetLife Legal Plan as opposed to the Willscenter.com if you were using the digital questionnaire for both?

A. MetLife Legal Plans provides you with the opportunity to use a local in-network attorney if needed to create any Will or Estate documents.

Q. Can you use your personal email to enter or is the county email required?

A. Please use your personal email address to register at both Willscenter.com and legalplans.com/estateplanning.

Q. If we set one up digitally, can we have an attorney review it?

A. Yes, most definitely.

Q. Do I have to list former spouse(s) if you are legally divorced as indicated in the questionnaire?

A. Please call 1-800-821-6400 to obtain a response to this question.

Q. What are the advantages of having a will vs a trust?

A. The main difference is that a will is simply a set of instructions about the distribution of your assets to be implemented after your death, whereas a trust allows you or someone designated by you as a legal representative to use your wealth according to your instructions even while you are alive.

Q. Do you have to use an attorney to set up a will?

A. No, you can use the digital platform to create a Will.

Q. What is the difference between both websites?

A. Willscenter.com is available to Actively Employed and Retired members of Prince George's County Government who are enrolled only in Basic Life Insurance while legalplans.com/estateplanning is available to actively employed members who are enrolled in Extra Life Insurance through Prince George's County Government.

Q. I am a retiree, can I find out if I or my husband are enrolled in the Extra Life Insurance program?

A. Retirees are not eligible to enroll in Extra Life Insurance, this is only available to active employees.

Office of Human Resources Management

1400 McCormick Drive
Largo, MD 20774
301-883-6330

