

Dr. Cassandra “Casey” Lewis, Vice Chair

Commissioner Lewis received her Honorary Doctorate from Canadian International Christian Academy. She also has experience in Real Estate and Human Resource training. Her company, Career Leaders Educational Workshops, has taught many government and organization employees. Commissioner Lewis was appointed to the DHMH and has served for 8 years. In her final 2 years of this appointment, she developed the Consumer Advisory Group, which is still operational. She also served on her communities HOA board for several years.

Angela D. Alsobrooks
County Executive

Prince George's county
Office of Community Relations

connecting people, connecting resources

Nicole Williams, Esq.

Commissioner Williams received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1999. Then in 2002, she received her Juris Doctorate at University of Pittsburgh. She is a licensed lawyer in Maryland, Virginia, and D.C. Commissioner Williams is a member of the Washington Metropolitan Chapter of the Community Association Institute, the Quorum Editorial Board Committee and Outreach Committee, and the Chesapeake Chapter of the Community Association Institute. She is also a panel chairperson for Montgomery County Commission on Common Ownership Committees.

Angela D. Alsobrooks
County Executive

Prince George's county
Office of Community Relations

connecting people, connecting resources

Timothy Smith, Chair

Commissioner Smith is a small business owner and Chairperson for the Prince George's County common ownership commission. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Business degree in Information Systems and an MBA in Business Management. In addition, he studies in Leadership Development, Human Capital Management, Philosophy, Theology, and Economics has contributed significantly to his education and experience. Commissioner Smith's journey to help cultivate and contribute to his community began through the establishment of Front Street Management. Front Street was organized in the State of Maryland with the purpose of offering Community Management Services to Homeowners Associations and Condominiums. Commissioner Smith is a member of the Community Association Institute and serves on the Executive Trustee Board for one of the largest churches in Washington D.C.

Angela D. Alsobrooks
County Executive

Prince George's county
Office of Community Relations

connecting people, connecting resources

John Henry King

Commissioner King is President of the Mount Oak Manor Homeowners Association, a Prince George's County community of 117 homes. He has been a member of the HOA Board for twelve years and President for eight of those years. He is also a member of the Community Associations Institute. He is employed as the Economic Development Director for the City of Bowie, Maryland, where he has worked since 2001. He has served in economic development positions for over 29 years, including ones in Leesburg and Loudoun County, Virginia, and at the State level in California. He is currently on the board of directors of the Bowie Business Innovation Center, Incorporated, and the Mount Oak Manor Homeowners Association. He is a 1994 graduate of Leadership Loudoun and a 2006 graduate of Leadership Maryland. He holds a Bachelor's Degree from the University of California, Los Angeles and a Master's of Business Administration degree from Golden Gate University.

Angela D. Alsobrooks
County Executive

Prince George's county
Office of Community Relations

connecting people, connecting resources

Daniel Hall

Daniel served as an Assistant Bureau Chief within the Prince Georges County Office of The Sheriff for thirty-three years before his retirement in 2013. During his tenure with the Office of the Sheriff, Dan worked extensively with common ownership communities while carrying out the service of any court orders related to landlord and tenant issues. As the commander of the Sheriff's Office Civil Division Dan worked with management companies and other common ownership organizations like the Apartment and Office Building Association (AOBA) to streamline the service and execution of landlord and tenant related court orders.

In 1979 Dan moved to Prince George's County Maryland after departing the military under an honorable discharge to attend school. Dan obtained an Associate of Arts degree in Law Enforcement and a Bachelor of Science degree in Homeland Security. Dan currently lives in Upper Marlboro and sits on the board of directors for the Collington Estates Homeowners Association in Upper Marlboro.

Angela D. Alsobrooks
County Executive

Prince George's county
Office of Community Relations

connecting people, connecting resources

Dr. Linda Hunt

Angela D. Alsobrooks
County Executive

Prince George's county
Office of Community Relations

connecting people, connecting resources

