

LIQUOR INSPECTOR II

NATURE AND VARIETY OF WORK

Under the authority of the Prince George's County Board of License commissioners, this is full performance level inspection, investigative, and surveillance work whereby incumbents are responsible for the enforcement of codes, ordinances, and regulations governing the sale and distribution of alcoholic beverages by proprietorships within the County. Subject to extensive public contact, incumbents independently perform the full range of field and office assignments in order to attain compliance with alcoholic beverage codes and regulations. Work that requires judgment and sensitivity is performed under general supervision and is evaluated by the Chief.

EXAMPLES OF WORK (ILLUSTRATIVE ONLY)

Makes full performance on-site field inspections/investigations/surveillance of proprietorships in order to evaluate compliance with alcoholic beverage laws, rules and regulations.

Gathers/obtains relevant information and data through approved agency techniques/procedures (e.g., interviews, direct observation, on-site field visits, research of records/documents, photographs) as part of the investigative process which will assist in the resolution of liquor related cases/complaints in accordance with established codes, policies, and procedures.

Maintains accurate, complete, and retrievable records and documentation (e.g., inspectors reports, monthly activities report, premise check list, observations, etc.) for inclusion in reports or to provide information for potential use at hearings.

Issues (written/verbal) code violation notices to licensees and their employees in order to inform them of business practices, procedures, or operations that do not comply with established codes.

Exercises the powers of a peace officer, constable, or sheriff in order to execute the duties and responsibilities of an alcoholic beverage inspector as outlined in the Maryland Annotated Code (e.g., on orders or as directed by the Board, issues summons, searches the premises of a liquor establishment without a warrant, or audits the books of a liquor establishment).

Testifies at hearings/court in order to provide pertinent evidence regarding the adjudication of code violation cases.

Posts signs conspicuously on a business establishment in order to inform the general public of hearing dates on alcoholic beverages cases/applications.

Willingly and cooperatively performs tasks and duties which may not be specifically listed in the class specification or position description, but which are within the general occupational category and responsibility level typically associated with the employee's class of work.
