

ALSOBROOKS Youth Leadership INSTITUTE

COUNTY EXECUTIVE
ANGELA ALSOBROOKS

The Alsobrooks Youth Leadership Institute (AYLI) is a 27-member body of Prince George's Proud youth from throughout the County. AYLI is a diverse group of youth from different backgrounds who are serious about the lives of youth in the County and interested in County government. The program is an intense immersion-learning opportunity in which participants are required to attend 95% of the program meetings, modules, and service activities.

AYLI is looking for forward-thinking young people who want to invest in their personal and professional growth while giving back and paying it forward. AYLI will represent the best of our youth and those who have a desire to make a positive impact in not just Prince George's County, but the world. Participants will receive community service hours for school credit.

AYLI is looking for youth with:

- a strong interest in community service and willingness to serve as a volunteer in their community and for County government
- dedicated time to participate and be active in the program
- a willingness to develop and share creative solutions for issues involving youth
- a commitment to doing what is right for those in need
- a willingness to learn about the County, including its history, culture and operations
- an interest in strengthening their leadership skills

- Open to all students attending Prince George's County Public, Charter, Private and Home Schools
- Grades 9 – 11 (as of the 2022-2023 school year)
- Must be a resident of Prince George's County
- Program runs January 1, 2023 – December 31, 2023
- Application open: September 7 – October 14, 2022
- Minimum GPA: 2.5
