On November 21, 2010, Staff from Animal Management Group joined partnership with Bowie CLAW (Citizens for Local Animal Welfare) for a blanket drive. Several truckloads of blankets, linens, etc. were collected.

On November 26, 2010, the adoption staff held its First Annual Black Friday event. Even though this is a County holiday, the adoption counselors and the Animal Programs Manager held this event to promote the adoption of animals that are black or predominantly black. The adoption fees are discounted by $80.00 during this one-day event. This event was very successful since we received over 25 adoption applications which are double the usual number on any given Friday or Saturday.
