

Ameenah Capers
Bowie, MD 20716

Ms. Capers has over 20 years of contract, public procurement, litigation, contract, and real estate development experience. Ms. Capers serves as Deputy General Counsel and Development Associate with a regional Real Estate Development and Construction Firm where she works on multi-family, mixed-use residential and retail projects in the Washington, DC metropolitan area.

Ms. Capers received her J.D. degree from the Howard University School of Law and a B.S. degree in Chemical Engineering from Howard University.