Legislation and Recommendation Subcommittee:

Board Member James discussed that the subcommittee sent requests to multiple agencies regarding disciplinary outcomes for administrative charge cases and received the information back promptly.

The subcommittee will meet next month to analyze the data and provide recommendations to the Board.

County Legislation proposed CR077-2025 has a hearing on Thursday, September 4, 2025, at 1:30 p.m.

The subcommittee is looking at the Administrative Hearing Board (AHB) final decision outcomes to see if there is a variance between the Administrative Charging Committee (ACC) report and what happens with the AHB.

The subcommittee seeks the Boards approval for submitting a proposed amendment CB21-2022, which would require law enforcement agencies in the county to submit a monthly written status report detailing the complaints they receive.

A motion to approve the submission of an amendment to CB21-2022 with a deadline of Tuesday, September 2, 2025, to submit was offered by Board Member James and seconded by Board Member O'Neal. Motion passed: Ayes – 11, Opposed – 0, Abstain – 0, Absent – 0

Data Analytics Subcommittee:

Board Member Coleman discussed data collected from the ACC mid-year report.

- Most complaints were received online (77%).
- Sustained was the most common disposition (53%)
- Most common allegation category was attention and/or neglect of duty (17%)
- Attention and neglect of duty represented 32% of all allegations.
- Prince George's County Police Department had the most complaints (77%), followed by Bowie and Greenbelt (7%)
- A correlation test showed a negative correlation of negative .08 between the most common allegations and dispositions, meaning there is an indirect relationship between the two. (As
