6. Question: What is priority placement for this waiting list?

Answer:

- A. First, Residents and Participant Families that Need an Accessible Unit and have at least one family member who uses a wheelchair or a scooter as an assistive device and requires, but are not currently living in an Accessible Unit. This priority also includes Participant Families that Need an Accessible Unit who are HAPGC program participants, who currently live in an Accessible Unit, but are not residing in Prince George's County. Priority among this group is based upon the date of application to the PBV Accessible Unit Waiting List.
- B. Second, after families in the first priority have been served, other Resident and Participant Families that Need an Accessible Unit that do not include at least one family member who uses a wheelchair or a scooter as an assistive device and is not living in a unit that accommodates their disability related needs. Priority among this group is based upon the date of application to the PBV Accessible Unit Waiting List.
- C. Third, after families in the first and second priority have been served, PBV Applicant Families that Need an Accessible Unit and have at least one family member who uses a wheelchair or a scooter as an assistive device and requires an Accessible Unit. Priority among this group is based upon the date of application to the PBV Accessible Unit Waiting List.
- D. Fourth, after families in the first, second, and third priority have been served, PBV Applicant Families that Need an Accessible Unit that does not include at least one family member who uses a wheelchair or a scooter as an assistive device. Priority among this group is based upon the date of application to the PBV Accessible Unit Waiting List.

7. Question: When will the waiting list close?

Answer: At this time the waiting list will remain open.

8. Question: Can members other than the head of household apply for a PBVAWL?

Answer: No, if you are a current resident of the HAPGC the only person eligible to apply is the head of household. If you are on the waiting list, the person that can apply in the household is the application holder.

9. Question: If I'm currently on other Housing Authority waiting list will my name be removed?

Answer: No, if you were pre-selected for any waiting list your name will remain on that waiting list.

Please note that you can ask for a reasonable accommodation to use HAPGC's housing or services. This can include auxiliary aids or services, materials in an alternative format, or help in completing paperwork or changes to your housing based on your disability.
