APPLICATION TO REQUEST SPECIAL SUNDAY OFF-SALE PERMIT
(Must Be Typed)

Effective June 1, 2022, House Bill 357, authorizes the Board of License Commissioners (Board) to issue Sunday off-sale permits to the holder of any Class A licenses or any Class B license with an off-sale privilege.

The permit authorizes the holder to sell alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption on Sunday from 8:00 a.m. to midnight. An applicant for the permit shall commit in the application to spending a minimum of $50,000 to rehabilitate and renovate the interior or exterior of the license premises within one (1) year after the permit is issued.

To be considered for this permit, this application must be filed with the Board accompanied by a certified check, cashier's check, or money order for $750 payable to Prince George's County. Upon receipt of the application a hearing will be scheduled.

The annual fees for the permits are: $2,590 for the holder of a Class A license; and
$1,080 for the holder of a Class B license with an off-sale privilege
